Entitlement to participate and vote at the Shareholders' Meeting - Designated Representative

Those who hold voting rights at the end of the seventh market trading day prior to the date scheduled for the Shareholders' Meeting in a single call (April 8, 2020 - Record date) are entitled to participate in the Shareholders' Meeting.

Those who prove to be holders of ordinary shares of the Company after this date will not be entitled to participate or vote at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Credit and debit entries registered in the accounts after the above-mentioned deadline shall not be considered for the purpose of legitimising the exercise of voting rights at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Entitlement to participate in the Shareholders' Meeting and to exercise the right to vote is attested by a letter sent by the authorized intermediary to the Company, in compliance with the intermediary's accounting records, in favour of the person/entity entitled to vote. This letter must reach the Company before the end of the third market trading day (i.e. by April 16, 2020) prior to the scheduled date of the Shareholders' Meeting. The right to participate and vote shall not be affected if the Company receives the letter after this deadline, provided that it is received before the start of the Shareholders' Meeting.

Pursuant to art. 106 of Decree Law no. 18 of March 17, 2020 (the so-called "Cura Italia" Decree), the Company has provided for participation in the Shareholders' Meeting to take place exclusively through the designated representative.

Consequently, the Company has appointed Computershare S.p.A. - with registered office in via Mascheroni 19, 20145 Milan - to represent shareholders pursuant to art. 135-undecies of Legislative Decree no. 58/98 (Consolidated Law on Finance) and the aforementioned Decree Law (the "Designated Representative"). Shareholders wishing to attend the Shareholders' Meeting will therefore have to give a proxy to the Designated Representative - with voting instructions - on all or some of the motions regarding the items on the agenda using the specific proxy form, which is also electronic, prepared by the Designated Representative in agreement with the Company. It is available on the Company's website at www.italmobiliare.it in the Governance/Shareholders' Meeting section where there is a link for electronic submission of the proxy.

The proxy form with voting instructions must be sent by following the instructions on the form and on the Company's website by the second market day preceding the Shareholders' Meeting (i.e. by April 17, 2020); it can also be revoked by the same deadline.

A proxy given in this way only has effect for the motions on which voting instructions have been given.

ITALMOBILIARE

Note that the shares for which even a partial proxy has been given are counted to ensure regular constitution of the Shareholders' Meeting. In relation to the motions for which voting instructions have not been given, the shares are not counted for the purpose of calculating the majority and the share of capital required for approval of the resolutions.

It should also be noted that proxies or sub-proxies may also be given to the Designated Representative pursuant to art. 135-novies of the TUF, notwithstanding art. 135-undecies, paragraph 4 of the Consolidated Law on Finance, in the manner and within the terms indicated on the Company's website, as mentioned above.

The Designated Representative will be available for clarifications or information at 02-46776819 or at the e-mail address ufficiomi@computershare.it.

To the extent permitted by law, persons entitled to attend pursuant to the law may be allowed to attend the Shareholders' Meeting by teleconference, providing they can be identified. Instructions for participation in the Shareholders' Meeting by teleconference will be given by the Company to those who are interested. The regular constitution of the Shareholders' Meeting and the validity of the resolutions on the items on the agenda are governed by law.

Integration of the agenda and presentation of new motions

Shareholders who, individually or jointly, own at least one fortieth of the share capital represented by shares with voting rights may request, in writing, within ten days of publication of this notice of calling, that the agenda of the Shareholders' Meeting be integrated, indicating in the request the additional topics they are proposing or submitting motions on topics that are already on the agenda. Those entitled to vote may individually submit motions at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Any integrations made to the agenda or the submission of additional motions on items already on the agenda will be announced in the same forms laid down for the publication of this notice of calling, at least fifteen days prior to the date scheduled for the Shareholders' Meeting (namely April 6, 2020); at the same time, the report prepared by the shareholders making the proposal, accompanied by any assessments by the Board of Directors, will be made available to the public.

documentation attesting entitlement to exercise voting rights issued by the authorized intermediary.

Questions submitted by the deadline indicated shall be answered at the Shareholders' Meeting at the latest. The Company may provide a single answer to various questions with the same content.

Appointment of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors, made up of five to fifteen members, is appointed on the basis of slates, in accordance with the By-laws.

Slates may be presented by shareholders who, alone or together with other shareholders, can document on the day the slates are deposited with the Company that, overall, they hold an interest in the share capital with voting rights of not less than 1%, as established by Consob Resolution no. 28 of January 30, 2020.

No shareholder may file or participate in the filing of more than one slate, directly or through a nominee or trust company.

Shareholders belonging to the same group and shareholders who join a shareholders' agreement involving the Company's shares may not file more than one slate, not even through a nominee or trust companies. Slates filed in violation of these restrictions will not be accepted.

The names of the candidates listed on each slate have to be numbered progressively.

Slates that have a total number of candidates equal to or greater than three must be composed of candidates belonging to both genders, to an extent that complies with current regulations on gender balance, which now provide that 2/5 of the members are to go to the less represented gender.

Each slate must include a number of candidates who meet the independence requirements established by the applicable legal and regulatory provisions, as well as by the Code of Conduct adopted by Borsa Italiana S.p.A.

Each candidate can only be on one slate under penalty of ineligibility.

The slates must be filed at the Company's registered offices (via Borgonuovo 20, Milan - Corporate Affairs Department) or sent to the certified email address affarisocietari.italmobiliare@legalmail.it, at least 25 days prior to the date set for the Shareholders' Meeting (i.e. by March 27, 2020), together with the following documentation:

- a) the statements in which the individual candidates accept their candidacy and declare, under their own responsibility, that there are no grounds for ineligibility and that they meet the integrity requirements established by law;
- b) a brief curriculum vitae on the personal and professional skills of each candidate with an indication of positions they hold as director or statutory auditor in other companies;
- c) the statements in which the individual candidates declare whether they meet the independence requirements laid down by law and the Code of Conduct;
- d) information on the identity of the shareholders who have presented slates;
- e) a statement by shareholders - other than those who have a controlling or majority stake, jointly or severally - acknowledging that they do not have any joint shareholdings, as defined by law.

The documentation issued by the authorised intermediary proving ownership of the percentage of capital required for presentation of a slate can also be submitted later, providing it is done by the deadline for publication of the slates by the Company (i.e. by March 31, 2020).

ITALMOBILIARE

If a slate does not comply with these provisions, it will be considered as though not presented.

Shareholders wishing to submit slates are invited to read the recommendations contained in Consob Communication DEM/9017893 of February 26, 2009.

The By-laws are available on the Company's website www.italmobiliare.it in the Governance section.

At least one of the Standing Auditors and at least one of the Alternate Auditors are taken from among those recorded in the Register of External Auditors established pursuant to the law, who have been auditing accounts for not less than three years.

Statutory Auditors who do not meet this requirement are taken from among those who have gained at least three years' overall experience in:

Slates may be presented by shareholders who, alone or together with other shareholders, can document on the day the slates are deposited with the Company that, overall, they hold an interest in the share capital with voting rights of not less than 1%, as established by Consob Resolution no. 28 of January 30, 2020.

No shareholder may file or participate in the filing of more than one slate, directly or through a nominee or trust company.

Shareholders belonging to the same group and shareholders who join a shareholders' agreement involving the Company's shares may not file more than one slate, not even through a nominee or trust companies.

Slates filed in violation of these restrictions will not be accepted.

Each slate is made up of two sections: one for candidates for the office of Standing Auditor and the other for candidates for the office of Alternate Auditor.

In each section, the names of not more than three candidates for the office of Standing Auditor and not more than three candidates for the office of Alternate Auditor have to be listed and numbered progressively.

Slates that have a total number of candidates equal to or greater than three must be composed of candidates belonging to both genders, to an extent that complies with current regulations on gender balance. This applies to candidates for the office of Standing Auditor, as well as to candidates for the office of Alternate Auditor. It should be borne in mind that current legislation provides that at least 2/5 of the standing members of the Board of Statutory Auditors (rounding down in the case of Boards of Statutory Auditors made up of three standing auditors) are to go

Each candidate can only be on one slate under penalty of ineligibility.

The slates must be filed at the Company's registered offices (via Borgonuovo 20, Milan - Corporate Affairs Department) or sent to the certified email address affarisocietari.italmobiliare@legalmail.it, at least 25 days prior to the date set for the Shareholders' Meeting (i.e. by March 27, 2020), together with the following documentation:

- b) a brief curriculum vitae on the personal and professional skills of each candidate with an indication of positions they hold as director or statutory auditor in other companies;
- c) information on the identity of the shareholders who have presented slates;
- d) a statement by shareholders - other than those who have a controlling or majority stake, jointly or severally - acknowledging that they do not have any joint shareholdings, as defined by law.

The documentation issued by the authorised intermediary, proving that shareholders have a right to vote on the day the slates are filed, can also be submitted later, providing it is done during the 21 days prior to the date of the Shareholders' Meeting (i.e. by March 31, 2020).

If a slate does not comply with these provisions, it will be considered as though not presented.

In the event that, by the deadline of 25 days prior to the date of the Shareholders' Meeting, only one slate has been filed, or only slates presented by shareholders who are connected to each other pursuant to current regulations, further slates can be presented up to the third day subsequent to that date (i.e. by March 30, 2020) and the threshold of 1% indicated above is halved (i.e. 0.5%).

Shareholders wishing to submit slates are invited to read the recommendations contained in Consob Communication DEM/9017893 of February 26, 2009.
