Profile

Capitelli F.Ili S.r.l., established in 1976 and based in the province of Piacenza, is active in the production and sale of cooked ham and other cured meats products that are distributed under the brand "Capitelli" and are characterized by the high quality and product excellence.

The company reinvented the cooked ham launching its flagship product "San Giovanni", made with selected meats and with a unique craft production process, that has recently received a prestigious quality award from the Espresso's "Salumi d'Italia Guide".

The main customers of the company are modern trade retailers, and the growth experienced by Capitelli in last years has been reinforced by consumer trends towards artisanal and high-quality food products.

Cooked ham "San Giovanni"

The raw material, coming from the best Italian farms, is selected by a meat expert directly on the slaughter lines. The raw meat is syringed with an infusion of herbs and spices, it is massaged for several days and finally wrapped in a coarse cloth to be cooked for a whole day. San Giovanni cooked ham entered the exclusive "knife tip salami" category of the Espresso's "Salumi d'Italia" 2019 Guide and is the only cooked ham to be awarded the maximum "5 PINS" prestigious scoring.
