

Giancarlo and Alberto Zanatta among the entrepreneurs of the year EY

Giancarlo and Alberto Zanatta, founder and President of Tecnica Group, received the Fashion, Design & Luxury Award in the Italian edition of the EY Awards The Entrepreneur of the Year® 2019 "for having succeeded in building an internationally recognized Group, with brands of absolute excellence, symbols of quality, innovation, technology and Italian design" .

The important recognition goes every years to those who have been able to create value, with innovative spirit and strategic vision, contributing to the growth of the economy.

President Zanatta commented: "Such recognition, rewards the continuity of our work and, on the same time, the foresight and spirit that have allowed us to renew ourselves and grow since the 1960s. That's why we want to share this prize with all our collaborators, who every day translate our strategic vision into reality."

Luca Pellizzoni, Partner EY, Italian Manager of the Award The Entrepreneur of the Year said: "From twenty-three years the EY Award the Entrepreneur of the Year rewards Italian excellence. The stories of this edition include long-lived Family Businesses and first-generation entrepreneurs who, in just over a decade, have gained international leadership. They are stories that testify how Italian entrepreneurship is renowned worldwide for the excellence of its capable, creative and avant-garde companies".
